

Virginia Campaigns Field Trip

Hosted by the Civil War Round
Table of the Mid-Ohio Valley

September 13—15, 2024

Heroes of Chancellorsville

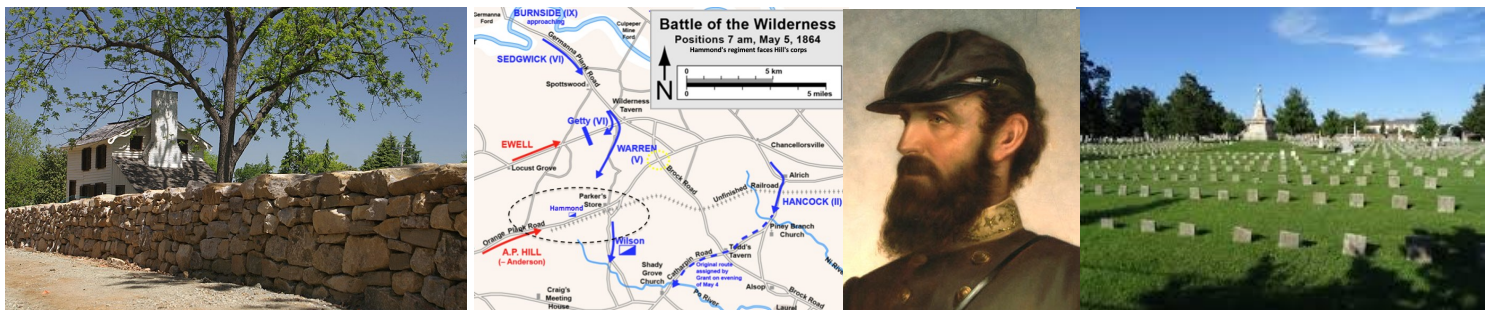

Introduction and Overview

The Civil War Round Table of the Mid-Ohio Valley cordially invites you to join us for a genuinely one-of-a-kind Civil War field trip experience that will feature several of the bloodiest and most contested landscapes in the war. As always, our purpose is to recognize and honor the service, dedication and sacrifice of citizens and soldiers from Southeast Ohio and Northern West Virginia who served and sacrificed on these hallowed grounds:

- Brandy Station Battlefield Park
- Chatham Manor, Fredericksburg VA
- Fredericksburg National Military Park
- Fredericksburg National Cemetery
 - Chancellorsville Battlefield
- The Wilderness Battlefield and Ellwood Manor
 - Guinea Station
 - Massaponax Baptist Church
 - Battle of Spotsylvania
- Battle of Lewisburg (West Virginia)

Guide and Speaker

Scott Britton

Don Pfanz

Scott Britton is Executive Director of The Castle Museum in Marietta, Ohio. He is a frequent speaker on a plethora of topics related to the Civil War and multicultural history in Southeastern Ohio. He conducts educational programs for students and adults, including frequent tours of Marietta's historic cemeteries. Scott is a graduate of Penn State University and is Past Commander of the General B. D. Fearing Camp #2 SUV and historian for the Marietta Chapter SAR. He co-founded the Civil War Round Table in 2012 and has served as guide on each annual field trip where he relates the stories of veterans from the region at the battlefield positions where they served our nation.

Don Pfanz is an author and staff historian at Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania National Military Park. He is a native of Gettysburg, PA, and graduated from the College of William & Mary before joining the National Park Service. Prior to joining the Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania NPS Staff he served at Petersburg National Battlefield and Fort Sumter National Monument. He is the author of five books including No Turning Back: A Guide to the Overland Campaign; Richard S. Ewell: A Soldier's Life; The Letters of General Richard S. Ewell, Stonewall's Successor; and, War So Terrible: A Popular History of the Battle of Fredericksburg.
